GRAVITY

Of Situation of Russian Armies Not Concealed at Duma's Opening

NOR HAS HOPE BEEN ABANDONED

Of Diverting Pressure By Activities In the West

MAY SURRENDER WARSAW

As was Moscow in 1812 in order to insure a final victory—Artillery Duels Only Marked Military Operations in the West—Desperate Battle in the East.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, Aug. 2.—No direct news from Warsaw has been received here today. While there are increasing indications that Grand Duke Nicholas is withdrawing his army from the Polish salient, there is evidence that the capital still is in possession of the Russians, since Petrograd correspondents on Warsaw papers were directed to send accounts of the Duma's opening for the issues of Monday morning.

That Russia has not entirely abandoned hope of a diversion in the West which would relieve the tremendous pressure exerted upon her by Austro-German allies, is shown by the announcement from Petrograd that the German forces before Warsaw have been heavily reinforced from the West, thereby creating favorable conditions for active operations by our allies.

There has been heavy fighting on the Narew front where the Germans have made some progress in the desperate battle which is raging between the Narew and the Odra rivers. Latest reports from Vienna are that the Russians are retreating further east, pursuing German regiments having passed through Chelm.

The opening of the Russian duma was held before a brilliant assembly. The ministers, in their speeches, did not attempt to minimize the gravity of the situation but all agreed that Russia had not reached the end of her resources. The minister of war summed up his views with the assertion that Russia perhaps would surrender Warsaw as Moscow was given up in 1812, in order to insure final victory.

On the western front, artillery duels only marked the military operations.

RURAL DELIVERY BY AUTOMOBILE NOW IN EFFECT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Aug. 2.—Two hundred and eight automobile rural delivery routes, distributed over eight states, went into operation today. This means that approximately 11,440 miles of rural post roads will be traversed in six days a week during August by automobile. The routes vary in length from a five mile minimum to sixty-four miles and will be operated from nine to twelve months a year.

ALASKA VOLCANO ACTIVE.

Seward, Alaska, Aug. 2.—Renewed activity of Katmai volcano, indicated by the presence of ashes in the air, was reported today by W. J. Briskin, of Kodiak. Officers of the steamer Admiral Watson reported that the Iliamna crater also is active.

Lad Nearly Drowned, While Swimming Below Dam, and Is Rescued With Great Difficulty

A great deal of excitement was caused at the water works dam yesterday afternoon when Bernard Bebout, ten year old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bebout of Hoover street, and Albert Black, driver of the Spees delivery wagon in Maple avenue, came near drowning.

A number of young people had gone in swimming below the dam, the water there being quite deep and the current very strong, especially since the recent heavy rains. Young Bebout got beyond his depth when his plight was discovered by Albert Black. The latter youngster swam to Bernard and the latter threw his arms around his would-be rescuer's neck. This greatly handicapped young Black and he made a gallant effort to save the lad but became exhausted when about fifteen feet from the bank, and was forced to relinquish Bebout after calling for some one to come and take the youngster.

After being relieved of his burden Black reached the shore in an exhausted condition and it was necessary to work with him for some time before he was resuscitated. In the meantime several other swimmers started out for the Bebout lad but Samuel Kuhn reached him first and brought him to shore. The boy had swallowed a great deal of water, having gone down twice, and spectators worked with him quite a little while before he was resuscitated, after which he was taken home. Young Black was game and after a fifteen minute rest went back into the water and finished his swim.

GOVERNOR

Personally Investigates Alleged Illicit Operation of Saloons and Speakeasies

IN SOUTHEASTERN OHIO MINING REGION

Where Relief is Being Sent By the State

OFFICIALS ARE MYSTIFIED

By Telegram From Texas Labor Commissioner, Saying It Was Planned There to Send 500 Miners to Ohio and Other States Where Men Are Now Subsisting On Charity.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Aug. 2.—While the adjutant general's office was combing the state for jobs for idle and starving coal miners in the Hocking district and Governor Willis personally was investigating the alleged illicit operations of saloons and speakeasies in that section, supplies of money and food continued today to pour in for the relief of the miners and their families. One carload of provisions was dispatched from Columbus to Gloucester and plans were being made for another. Another carload is being prepared by the people of Bucyrus. Among the new relief donations in cash are $100 from H. H. Timpink, of Canton, member of the state children's home commission, $100 from J. G. Schmidlapp, of Cincinnati, and $11 from the New Washington-Lafayette Union of Yellow Springs. The latter contribution, all in nickels, was a gift of 200 people.

Plans are under way for the transfer from Gloucester to Cleveland of 200 miners for whom work has been found in Cleveland.

State officials today were mystified by receipt of a telegram from the state labor commissioner of Texas, Charles W. Woodman, seeking to know if there was a demand for more miners in Ohio. The telegram, addressed to the state industrial commission, said that agents were in Texas planning to ship 500 miners from there to Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia. Messages immediately were sent back, advising against the shipment. Governor Willis personally wired Governor James E. Ferguson of Texas to prevent the additional miners from being sent. "Thousands of miners here are already out of employment and are subsisting on charity," Governor Willis' message read.

Two theories are being advanced by state officials here to explain the Texas situation in the absence of any explanation from Texas officials. One is that idle workmen in Texas may be victims of an exploitation scheme worked by bogus employment agents. The other theory is that eastern Ohio mine owners may have in contemplation the operation of their mines by non-union labor. The latter theory has been given some color by reports from Cleveland that miners have been sought there for work in the eastern Ohio district. The reports are not, however, authenticated.

SAVING BANK CLOSED.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Valdez, Alaska, Aug. 2.—The Valdez Bank and Trust company did not open for business today. The bank's closing was decided on Saturday by its directors, largely because of losses resulting from the recent fire here. The liabilities are given as $16,000 and assets as $50,000.

WARSAW, THE PRIZE IN THE GREATEST BATTLE THE WORLD HAS KNOWN

This is a general view of Warsaw, looking from Prague across the Vistula river. It has become the prize to be won in the greatest battle the world has ever known. The Germans and Austrians are pressing the Russians hard, and while the defense has been stubborn there is a feeling that this Russian city of nearly a million will fall into the hands of the Kaiser. If it does it will be the largest city thus far taken in the war. No other city in Europe that might be taken compares with it in size except the capitals.

FRENCH MARINES GUARD LEGATION PORT AU PRINCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, August 2.—French marines were today guarding the French legation at Port Au Prince, Haiti, from which building President Guillaume was taken by a mob and slain during the recent revolution there.

The landing of the marines from the cruiser Descartes was at the earnest request of the French minister and was with the consent of the United States government. American marines have already been landed.

Later advices from Port Au Prince to the state department said that order was being maintained there.

STEAMER THOUGHT TO BE AGROUND, LAY AT ANCHOR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, Aug. 2.—Hundreds of persons, still excited over the Eastland disaster, thought that another marine accident had occurred today when the fog lifted and the big passenger steamer Manitou was observed lying off the Wilson avenue beach.

They reported to the newspapers and the police that the boat was aground, but it was soon learned that she was at anchor awaiting a favorable moment to enter the river. A large number of boats are due in this port on Monday morning, and the Manitou, to avoid possibility of accident in the crowded shipping, is said frequently, to lie to, although her anchorage usually is not so closely in shore as it was today.

Later it was admitted that the Manitou drifted farther in shore than had been planned and that her keel grazed the sandy bottom, without injury. She proceeded under her own power and arrived at the wharf an hour late.

There were two hundred passengers, including several who returned from the Barker-Spaulding wedding at Harbor Point, Michigan, last Saturday.

GERMAN COTTON NOW IN CONTROL OF GOVERNMENT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Rottorham, via London, Aug. 2.—German newspapers report that the government is taking over the entire control of the German cotton industry. The order which has been issued, says:

"From August 1, all textile factories in Westphalia will be worked under state control as part of an arrangement to provide for an equitable division of cotton among the factories in Germany."

More Bodies Recovered and Others Seen Entangled in Wire Netting; Eastland Probe

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Chicago, Aug. 2.—When the federal grand jury which is investigating the capsizing of the liner Eastland, convened today, it is expected that Secretary of Commerce Redfield would go before the body sometime during the day to tell of the work of the federal steamboat inspection service.

Secretary Redfield's board resumed its sessions, but it was not known what character this inquiry would assume in view of an order by Judge Landis of the United States district court yesterday refusing permission to William Nicholas, steamboat inspector to examine the hull of the Eastland. Secretary Redfield said his investigation would go on in spite of this order. He is expected to ask the federal court for permission to examine such witnesses as he needs.

State Attorney Hoyne is prepared to present to the county grand jury evidence, tending to show the character of men employed as members of the crew of the Eastland. Mr. Hoyne announced that he was working in harmony with federal officials.

"Judge Landis, Mr. Hoyne and I have a perfect understanding," said Mr. Hoyne.

The findings of three more bodies in the hull of the Eastland yesterday led to a renewal of the search today. Several divers were sent into the boat where it was reported that a number of bodies were seen, but could not be recovered. They were entangled in wire netting, the divers reported.

Secretary of Commerce Redfield stated that an equilibrium test of all passenger-carrying steamers on the great lakes would be made, and that the work of steamboat inspectors during the last fifteen years would be investigated.

John A. Cotter of New Orleans, John K. Bulger, San Francisco, H. M. Seeley, New York, Eugene O'Donnell, Boston, all steamboat inspectors, and a fifth inspector to be named later, will be brought here to assist in the work, the secretary said.

The investigation of the record of the inspection service will be made by a board on which the traveling public will be represented. It will follow lines suggested by Lieutenant Governor Barratt O'Hara, with those views Mr. Redfield said he was in accord.

The sixth session of the federal board of inquiry into the Eastland disaster was held.

The Western Electric company's plant resumed operations today after the lapse of a week since the disaster to the Eastland. Today's revision of the casualty list shows 838 identified dead; two unidentified dead, and 140 missing. Of the missing, all but two have been accounted for as having perished.

CARRANZA IN POSSESSION OF MEXICO CITY

OFFICIAL CONFIRMATION REACHES STATE DEPARTMENT FROM CONSUL

Message from Red Cross Says Death and Collapse are Resulting from Starvation.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Aug. 2.—Official confirmation of the reconquest of Mexico City by Carranza's army under General Gonzalez, reached the state department today from American Consul Silliman at Vera Cruz. A message to the American Red Cross from Mexico City says there have been cases of death and collapse from starvation in the capital.

The Red Cross message was from Charles J. O'Connor, the society's relief agent at Mexico City.

"Prices already are prohibitive," it said. "There is practically no corn in the city. Authentic cases of death and collapse from starvation. Some people are eating leaves, grass, weeds, dead horses and mules."

Consul Silliman's message said Mexico City was occupied by the Gonzales forces Friday night, "on urgent orders of General Carranza," and added:

"A severe fight occurred Friday afternoon at a point east of Guadalupe. Director of telegraph states telegraph communication is expected by Sunday afternoon at the latest. Communication with Tula, via Pachuca, and is being pushed northward. Occupation of Zacatecas by Obregon's forces confirmed. It is stated that General Gonzales is going directly into Mexico City instead of lingering as before and it is expected that communication will be restored at once. It also is expected that Carranza will move his entire government to Mexico City during August."

The state department has no official reports that General Villa abandoned Torreón, established headquarters at Chihuahua and ordered Americans to leave. Nothing official has been received.

Advices concerning Paul Hudson, an American, editor of the Mexican Herald said he was held prisoner in the Herald building as late as July 25, when Zapata followers were operating.

Great Britain Sends Reply To Note; Germany Also Answers Protest Of American in William P. Frye Case

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, Aug. 2.—Great Britain's supplemental note in reply to American representations on interference with neutral shipping reached the state department today and will be published in Wednesday morning's newspapers with the note received last week on the same subject and a third note regarding detention of the American steamer Neches, which also arrived today.

Secretary Lansing said the supplemental note was a reply to the caveat sent by the United States on July 17, declaring this government would not recognize the validity of prize court proceedings taken under restraints imposed by British law in derogation of the rights of American citizens under international laws.

The caveat was filed to avoid any misunderstanding as to the attitude of the United States toward the orders in council.

Officials could not discuss the British communication. Objection has been made by the British authorities to publication of any portion until the notes have been released by arrangement between the governments.

The case of the American steamer Neches which forms the basis of the third note involves the right of a belligerent to seize goods originating in an enemy country, or even in a neutral country adjacent to the enemy country and supposed to be subject to its influence but destined for another neutral country.

The supplemental note is understood to defend the British action in the Neches case.

GERMANY ARGUES

In Note Today Right to Destroy and Pay for Ships.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 2.—Germany's reply to the last American note on the sinking of the American ship William P. Frye, by the auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich, began to arrive today at the state department. Time for its publication will be arranged later.

Germany is contending for her right to destroy and pay for the Frye under the Prussian American treaty of 1828. The United States denies the right to destroy the ship. There appears to be no question of the payment or reparation by Germany but there is a question over whether it shall be paid directly by diplomatic exchanges or shall go

DEADLOCK

In Haitian Politics Has Followed Violent Revolutionary Activities

EFFORTS TO ELECT A PRESIDENT FAIL

Nationalists and Revolutionists Quarrel

AMERICAN ASSURANCES

That Protection Will Be Given Senators and Deputies, While They Select a Ruler, Not Sufficient to Allay the Fears, and Assembly Takes No Action—The Haitian Situation

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Port Au Prince, Haiti, Aug. 2.—The violent revolutionary activities of last week have been followed by a political deadlock in the efforts of the Haitian congress to elect a president in succession to Guillaume, who was shot to death on the streets of the capital.

A majority of the National Assembly to elect to the Presidency M. Dartiguenave, but these members are in sharp conflict with the revolutionary committee which desires the election of Dr. Rosalvo Bobo, leader of the successful revolution.

In spite of the assurances given by the American naval commander that congress will enjoy the protection of the American forces present in order to deliberate with freedom, the senators and deputies have decided not to elect a president at the present time. They are forced to this course by fear of attack from the partisans of Dr. Bobo.

A delegation of four congressmen, including the archbishop of Port Au Prince, left here yesterday on the American naval auxiliary celtic for Cape Haitien in an endeavor to bring about conciliation between the various political factions.

The American marines on shore continue to disarm Haitian civilians. The detachment of marines who came ashore last night from the French cruiser Descartes is now in occupation of the French legation.

MOB ATTACK

Made on Wesleyan Mission—American Admiral Controls Capital.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, Aug. 2.—The Wesleyan mission in Port Au Prince was attacked Saturday night by a mob attempting to seize a man who had murdered a prisoner in jail and had been secreted there. Rear Admiral Caperton reported the affair today, but gave no details. The city is now being controlled without difficulty.

The navy department issued this summary of its dispatches:

"The commander of the cruiser squadron, Rear Admiral Caperton, reports from Port Au Prince that the city is being controlled without any difficulty. While apparently everything is quiet and the Haitian soldiers are said to be disarming and turning in their arms to the naval authorities, it is believed that many arms are being retained secretly. The Haitian soldiers apparently retain their organization, although without arms. Daily inspections are made of arms, and whenever any are found, they are taken and placed in charge of the United States forces.

While under the surveillance of Italian troops they are under the direction of their own superiors. Their rations are the same as those served by the Italian soldiers.

LABOR PROBLEMS TO BE DISCUSSED AT A CONFERENCE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—Prior to the opening here today of the conference between Secretary W. B. Wilson of the department of labor and labor officials from all parts of the country, to consider plans for co-operation in the handling of labor problems, a great military parade was to be held in honor of the visiting cabinet officer.

Orders issued by the war and navy departments called for the participation in the parade of all available men in both services. It was expected that about 12,000 soldiers from the battleship training squadron now here would take part.

At the conference, in which federal, state and municipal labor and immigration officials from all parts of the country were to take part. The problem of unemployment was to receive particular attention.

He is 60 years old. For the rest of his time he intends to occupy a little farm in Scotland. He began his career at sea when 12 years old, on board the Inman liner, City of Baltimore. Non-Medical Healers in Ohio Must Secure a License By One of the State's New Laws

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Columbus, Aug. 2.—As soon as the state medical board shall be able to hold examinations, all non-medical healers in Ohio, excepting divine healers, will have to be licensed by the state. This is the result of the sweeping provisions of the Platt-Elis bill, which became operative last midnight. Affected, among others, are chiropractors, chiropractors, masseurs, and practitioners of spondylotherapy, naprapathy, neuprathy, hydrotherapy, psychotherapy and other non-medical cults. Practitioners who have been operating in the state for five years or more need not take an examination to show fitness, but all must be licensed. The new law does not affect osteopaths who operate under separate law. The Platt-Elis measure is conceded to be the most sweeping of its kind in the history of Ohio. It contemplates the registration of healers of all classes, excepting divine healers, who have not been included in previous laws.

Other new laws, effective for the first time today, have provisions as follows:

For the state registration of nurses; for the prevention of the defacing of automobiles to conceal their identity; for the requirement that primary candidates may not be nominated by the writing in of their names on the ballot unless 8 per cent. of the voters so cast their ballots; for the granting to county commissioners of the right to abolish grade crossings outside municipalities; for the granting to county commissioners of the right to spend a maximum of $1500 yearly for soldiers' and sailors' monuments; for a change in automobile registration laws so that an automobile owner, when obtaining a new car, need pay only $1 for a renewal of tag instead of being compelled to purchase a new tag; for limitation of game fish catches. The latter law limits to 12 the number of black bass and to forty the number of blue gills that may be caught in one day.

Effective today also is the law giving the Cincinnati-Southern railway authority to issue $2,500,000 in bonds for the construction of a new bridge across the Ohio river.

ENTHUSIASTIC GERMAN PRESS WITH EMPEROR

(Associated Press Telegram)
Berlin, Aug. 2.—(By wireless to Sayville.)—Among the news items prepared by the Overseas News Agency, for transmission by wireless telegraph abroad, was the following:
"The entire German press has approved with enthusiasm the proclamation given out by Emperor William on the anniversary of the outbreak of the war and published yesterday. It unites in pointing out that every word in this statement breathes his accustomed high-minded seriousness.
"The conviction of Emperor William that the entire German nation is animated by a firm resolution to secure a lasting peace, thus opening the road for an unparalleled national development, is shared by all the people. Yesterday the people went to church and thanked the Almighty for the blessings of the past year and prayed for a speedy ending of the fearful struggle.
"Newspapers publish also exhaustive reviews of the army and navy happenings of the past twelve months, and point out particularly that the plan to starve an entire nation of 70,000,000 men, women and children has been frustrated by the careful organization of all resources.
"Germany and Austria-Hungary occupy 29,000 square kilometers in Belgium, 21,000 in France, 170,000 in Russia, and 10,000 in French Alsace.
"Prisoners of war taken in Galicia now in German camps and hospitals or employed as workers, total 938,809; men captured in the campaign last week and on their way to camp number 120,000 and prisoners in Austria-Hungary 636,543, making a grand total of 1,695,112.
"Prisoners taken in Russia and now in Germany, total 5,000 officers, and 720,000 non-commissioned officers and privates; in Austria 3,190 officers and 610,000 non-commissioned officers and privates, total 8,790 officers and 1,330,000 men.
"German collecting stations received up to the middle of June 5,433 captured field guns and 1,555 machine guns. Many field pieces were not delivered to these stations but were kept with the troops and are being used against their former owners. While exact figures are not available, it is estimated that nearly 8,000 guns and 3,000 machine guns have been captured.

U. S. GOVERNMENT "CAN GO TO HELL"

(Associated Press Telegram)
El Paso, Texas, Aug. 2.—"The American government can go to hell!" declared General Francisco Villa, addressing a gathering of foreign merchants at Chihuahua City, Saturday.
Shortly afterwards he confiscated a number of their stores. Forty-two Mexican merchants were jailed after the conference held Saturday for the purpose of raising a forced loan. Six were executed. Such was the substance of reports brought here today by foreign merchants.

According to the reports brought here by merchants, General Villa stamped up and down the room where foreign and Mexican businessmen were assembled Saturday in the governor's palace and shook his fist in the faces of the thirty or forty present. Some of the foreigners were escorted to the meeting under guard.
"I am going to take your business for the benefit of the state," he declared. "Your employees will remain here and conduct the business under the direction of my agents -- you have been stealing from the people for yourselves.

"Tomorrow at noon, a train will be ready to take you foreigners to the border. We are poor here, and I will not send bread or water on the train. Meanwhile you Americans and Germans and Frenchmen, my telegraph wires will be open to you and you can protest to your governments.
"If the American government does not like my action, it can go to hell. I have been fighting for twenty years and I am willing to fight as many years more."

The tirade ended, it was said, "Tomorrow at noon, a train will be ready to take you foreigners to the border. We are poor here, and I will not send bread or water on the train. Meanwhile you Americans and Germans and Frenchmen, my telegraph wires will be open to you and you can protest to your governments.
"If the American government does not like my action, it can go to hell. I have been fighting for twenty years and I am willing to fight as many years more."

FORMER NEWARK WOMAN SAID TO HAVE OFFERED $40,000 TO SOCIALISTS IN ITALY TO KEEP OUT OF THE WAR

MRS. WARREN SPRINGER.
Formerly Miss Margaret McGinnis, of Newark, who is an ardent advocate of peace.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Paris, Aug. 2.—The Rome Giornale D'Italia publishes a statement issued "by direction of the Socialist party" alleging an attempt to bribe Italian Socialists to oppose Italy's entrance into the war.
An accusation of corruption against Italian Socialists, made by the Cri De Paris has evoked an explanation to the effect that on May 16 last a Zurich citizen named Nathan was presented at a Socialist council at Bologna by M. Grulich, dean of the Swiss Socialists, as having just returned from the United States, charged with a mission by an American woman which should be of interest to Italian Socialists on account of the financial difficulties of the party.

Nathan, asked to explain, is alleged to have said that an American woman living in Chicago and a well-known peace advocate had charged him to offer from $20,000 to $75,000 to the Swiss Socialists, as having just returned from the United States, charged with a mission by an American woman which should be of interest to Italian Socialists on account of the financial difficulties of the party.

through a prize court. Germany takes the latter view.
The United States contends that under the treaty with Prussia of 1828, the Prize case should be adjusted through diplomatic channels, whereas Germany has held it was a matter for prize court adjustment. In its last note, the United States asked Germany to reconsider a prize court ruling as binding.

In view of the American attitude there was much speculation here today as to what Germany's latest reply would contain. While the United States will not recede from its position, it was said today that in case the German reply includes an announcement of a prize court decision, it would not take any steps to prevent the owners from accepting the award if they were satisfied.

THUMB WAS INJURED.

Hamilton D. Watson, engineer of the court house, is suffering from a double affliction, having injured his right thumb about a week ago while moving a heavy iron door, and is now threatened with a felon, and at the same time poison has broken out all over his right arm. Mr. Watson, however, bears his sufferings in a stoical manner and is on the job at the court house from morning until night.

OVERCOME BY HEAT.

William Helms of Cambria street, was overcome by heat Saturday afternoon while at work in the harvest field south of Whipple Park. The Bradley ambulance removed him to his home. He was somewhat improved Monday.

TEXT BOOKS RECOMMENDED BY COMMITTEE

Some months ago Superintendent E. W. Jordan of the County Schools, appointed a Course of Study and Text-Book Committee to assist him in the solution of the two great questions confronting his administration. On this committee were appointed the following supervisors: Jesse S. Mason, Newark; Clinton P. Smith, Utica; L. C. Brown, Johnstown; George M. Strong, Granville. After weeks of patient labor the course of study has been prepared and is now in press. Honorary were granted the representatives of the leading book companies of the county. Scores of books were examined. The idea in the mind of the majority of the committee was to advance toward uniformity in all its proceedings the committee had in mind the central factor in any school system: the pupil.
Saturday the list recommended was completed as follows:
Reading—New Education, First and Fourth grades, B. Brown & Bender; Elson, Second and Fourth grades, Riverside, one of which to be basal.
Spelling—Progressive Arithmetic—Weston-Smith. Agriculture—Productive Farming. Writing—Economy System.
The Physiology, History, Geography and Grammar remain unchanged as yet. The first three of these texts are practically uniform, and a change would work considerable expense on the patrons.
Conservative changes are to be recommended by supervisors. Some time may, and should, elapse before all these recommendations are in force. But a great step has been made toward uniformity and system in the Licking County public schools.
Superintendent Jordan expresses his appreciation of the splendid service of his committee, and comments them to the people of Licking County as progressive and up-to-date school men.
The county board of education is made up of C. S. Brown of Hebron, president; P. F. Koon of St. Louisville, vice president; S. C. Manger of Pataskala, C. M. Ross of Johnstown and Walter Cassel of Alexandria.

New York, Aug. 2.—On their way to Liverpool to enlist in the British army, Robert Frank and George Morley had arrived here today, after a 2,963 mile ride by motorcycle from Saskatoon, Canada. Their motorcycle was equipped with a side saddle and carried a tent and stove besides the clothing of the riders. They followed the old Yellowstone trail and camped in a tent. Frank said that the roads in North Dakota and Minnesota were too awful for words.

WILLIAM, BEST IN PACING RACE;
LOSES ONE HEAT

(Associated Press Telegram)
Detroit, Mich., Aug. 2.—William showed his superiority over all other pacing champions Saturday by outlasting and outgunning his field and winning the $5,000 free-for-all in two heats out of three. This event, which brought together the most famous pacers in the world, was the race of greatest interest for the final day of the Grand Circuit week. Only a little less spectacular was the 2:03 pace, which went four heats, while the 2:12 trot, with five, also was a splendid performance. The other two races, which completed the program were won in straight heats.

Starting the free-for-all pace, William took a lead of half a dozen lengths in the first eighth of a mile. Following him was Directum 1, the same distance in front of Flower Direct, with Anna Bradford a bad last. They maintained these positions for five-eighths of a mile, when the trailers began moving up.

Directum 1 was only a length away from William at the last turn. Halfway down the stretch he was on even terms and, passing the distance flag, showed his nose in front. In a furious drive he increased his advantage a few inches and took the heat by a scant neck. The time, 2:00 1-4, was a record for a Detroit track. Flower Direct and Anna Bradford were lucky to escape the flag. Marvin entered a protest, claiming that Murphy had crowded him dangerously close in the stretch but the judge decided he had no cause for complaint.

Marvin pursued different tactics in the second mile, allowing Murphy to do the leading. The fast clip of the first heat had fired Directum 1 and, when the dash for the wire began, he faltered. William passed him in the last eighth. Then Flower Direct, under the whip, rushed up to beat him for second place. The last half of this heat was covered in 59 seconds.

In the final heat Anna Bradford paced out in front with Flower Direct second, William third and Directum 1 in the rear. In this order they raced until the three-quarter pole was passed. The Marvin gave William his head and it was all over. Flower Direct and Anna Bradford in the slower going were able to keep close, but Directum 1 was through.

The 2:05 trot was rather easy for Margaret Druten. In each heat, Rythmel led the small field into the stretch, but Cox pushed to the front when ready and won easily.

The Eno from Louisville captured the 2:16 trot in straight heats, leading all the way in the first heat and coming through the bunch in the stretch in the other two.

The 2:03 pace brought out an excellent field. Braden Direct, finishing fifth in the first heat, had the most speed in the next three, winning each time from almost nowhere in a stretch drive.

Publicity On School Needs.

Frank publicity in securing the co-operation of the community in the work of the schools is urged by W. S. Deffenbaugh, of the United States bureau of education, in a report on "School Progress in the Smaller Cities," just issued.

"School boards that are managing the schools ably and honestly do not fear to turn on the searchlight," declares Mr. Deffenbaugh. "The sentiment is growing among school boards that the public should know how its money is expended. In the most progressive schools, the board and the superintendent are presenting facts to the people (either in printed reports, in newspaper articles, or by both).

Some schoolmen, however, object to furnishing the newspapers with school information on the ground that they are thereby advertising themselves. A superintendent who was complaining about lack of interest among the parents in the school of his city was asked whether he reported the progress of the schools through the local papers. He replied that he did not believe in advertising himself. He failed to grasp the idea that school news is not for the purpose of boosting a superintendent; besides being legitimate news, it calls attention to the needs of the work of the school so that the school may become more efficient.

In several cities, as Fredonia, Kans., there is an educational issue of the local paper. In some other cities there are daily school notes. On the whole, the public is becoming better informed regarding the schools than it was a few years ago. The tendency is toward greater publicity by means of printed reports and newspaper articles.

Mr. Deffenbaugh observes that the schools can work to advantage through women's civic improvement clubs and through parent-teacher associations. Such clubs are often instrumental in the introduction of kindergartens, manual training, and domestic science. The superintendent of one school utilized the women's clubs of the city by asking that each club give some consideration to the question, "What can be done to improve the efficiency of your schools?" Each club discussed the question and sent a representative to present to the teachers the ideas of the club. In the opinion of the superintendent of schools in that city, the plan aroused interest among the women of the city in better schools.

An Envious Record.

E. R. Deffenbaugh, who recently retired as state fire marshal, has won an enviable record and one that reflects credit not only on himself but on the administration under which he worked and was selected. The state examiner who checked his office at retirement said: "By his untiring energy and business methods he has raised it (the office of state

The Advocate's Advertising School

LESSON NO. 3.

One of our greatest faults in advertising is the attempt to crowd too much into a given space. The eye wearies of fine type. Life is busy, and a large bulk of closely set matter is repellant. People will look it over, for they are keenly interested in advertising. But they will not read it as carefully as they would a notice in large type. Too many details confuse the attention.

A great many firms in advertising a mark-down sale will specify a large number of items in every department in the store, itemizing each grade of goods, and showing how much the cut is in each item. That takes a lot of space. Usually it becomes necessary to put it in small type. It would seem better to name specifically only a few of the items. A line or two of space should be used in giving a little terse information about the goods, putting the whole thing in large type that is more attractive and restful to the eye.

This is no plea to the merchant to increase the amount of newspaper space that he is using. It is a plea, after a merchant has decided what space he can afford, to handle it in such a way as to attract and please the reader's eye.

The caption placed over an advertisement is exceedingly important. Some merchants head it simply with the name of their firm in big black type. That stirs no particular interest. The reader is not interested in the success of a particular store. He wants to know how he can benefit himself. If he is in a hurry he can only read the headlines of an advertisement. Unless the headline suggests to him that it will be for his interest to read farther, he might skip the whole thing.

A more effective method is to give an advertisement a heading just as if it was a news story—as every advertisement should be. The advertiser should pick out the big central feature of his message and put that in black type. The name of the store can be put in large type at the bottom or otherwise featured.

Great Republic Assailed.

The power exerted by the President in pursuit of what is called his foreign policy is imposed upon him by the Constitution of the United States. It is no personal or partisan controversy that absorbs his time and thought. A great Republic has been assailed in the lives and property of its citizens by a great empire. The rights that the president maintains are embodied in law and in treaties he is sworn to enforce, and they are rights which until recently Germany claimed for itself.—New York World.

Problem in Haiti.

We have enough marines and blue jackets in Haiti to prevent any further outburst of savagery, but we can't keep them there permanently, and the serious question is what we shall do next. There is no government in the country at present. Apparently we have got to set one up, and a government is of no use unless the people will let it govern. Dr. Bobo's insurrection had not yet reached the stage of a revolution, and if we should install it in power the vital question would be whether it could keep itself in power, and also whether it could do that without massacring its opponents.—Philadelphia Record.

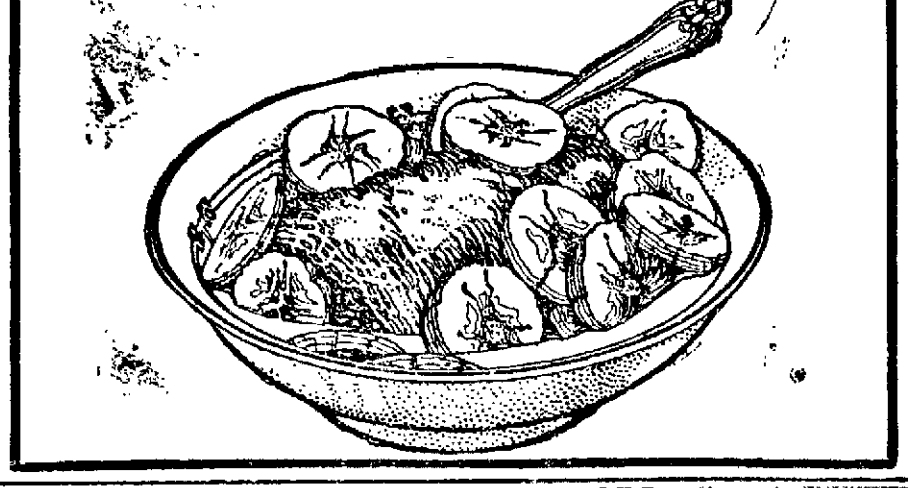

A Bankrupt City.

Nashville is not the first American city that has been placed in a receiver's hands, but it is probably the first where such action has been taken for political reasons. Memphis, Tenn., and Elizabeth, N. J., both became bankrupts some year ago, but their troubles were caused by too rapid development and the collapse of booms. It is said that Nashville's credit and financial standing are not involved, but it is difficult to see how they can escape some impairment. For years Tennessee has been the scene of furious political battles, which have not enhanced its reputation. The bankruptcy of its capital city is in keeping with this reckless partisanship.—Philadelphia Record.

THE BARBER.

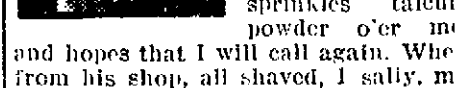

When to the barber's shop I wander, I always feel a total loss, with whiskers striking here and yonder, till they'd disgrace a Chinese joss. And as he shaves the barber whistles, or hums some cheerful, lifting air, the while he amputates the bristles, and spreads some tonic on my hair.

He does not talk to me or bore me, this most discreet of workmen; he sprinkles talcum powder 'o'er me, and hopes that I will call again. When from his shop, all shaved, I sail, my self respect again is high; I don't go sneaking down the alley, or shun the keen-eyed passer-by. I'm conscious of a transformation, no more I feel like twenty cents. I ornament my sex and station, I will compare with other gents. If hoppers cease their helpful labors, and failed us in the hour of need, then you and I and all our neighbors would lose our grip and go to seed. We would descend to low condition, and in the sinks of sloth abide, for whiskers kill all sane ambition, they're fatal to an honest pride.

BABY RUN DOWN BY AUTOMOBILE: LEG IS BROKEN

Charles Tippet Martin, the three-year-old son of Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Martin, of Hudson avenue, was knocked down by an automobile on Saturday evening and his left leg broken.

The child had accompanied his sister to the grocery and on returning she stopped to talk to some friends in a machine. The baby darted out from behind the machine in front of a machine driven by W. F. Drake of Monroeville. He was knocked down, and in falling broke the leg, and but for the presence of mind of Mr. Drake, the child would have been run over by the machine. He was taken into the home of Dr. W. H. Knauss, and Dr. Knauss and Dr. H. J. Davis set the bone. The leg was broken between the knee and the ankle.

TURNS ON FRIEND WHO'D FREED HIM; HELD FOR ROBBERY

Charles Dorsey, plasterer, was assaulted and robbed Saturday night in West Church street near Ninth, and John Mitchell, who says his home is in San Francisco, was this morning bound over to the grand jury charged with the offense.

By representing himself to be a plasterer, Mitchell won the friendship of Dorsey who agreed to give him a place to sleep and give him his breakfast.

The two started for the Dorsey home and when they reached Ninth street, Mitchell struck Dorsey over the head, rendering him unconscious, according to the story related to the police.

When the man recovered consciousness, Mitchell was gone, also the sum of $5 which Dorsey had in his pockets, and his eye glasses.

The matter was reported to the police and a short time later, Officer Fleck arrested Mitchell, charging him with intoxication and highway robbery.

In police court, Mitchell did not deny the allegation, in fact he admitted it in the statement he made to the court, saying that he got but $8 instead of $11 which Dorsey said he lost.

Mitchell was bound over to the September term of court, his bond being fixed at $300.

FLOWERS

SENT TO THE FUNERAL OF CHAS. BECKER IN GREAT PROFUSION.

Simple Name Plate Replaced One Inscribed "Murdered by Governor Whitman" Removed.

New York, Aug. 2.—The funeral of Charles Becker, executed in Sing Sing prison Friday for instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, was held today from the Church of St. Nicholas of Tolentine, the Bronx. The church was filled with men and women and the overflow stood in the streets outside. So great was the crowd around the church and the Becker home nearby, that police reserves had to be called to handle it. Carriages to take part in the funeral procession extended several blocks from the church. One carriage was filled with floral tributes. The largest of these was a floral cross bearing the inscription "Sacrificed to Politics." A card conveyed the information that it had come "From a Friend."

The undertaker employed by Mrs. Becker said the pallbearers had been selected this morning, but he was under instructions not to divulge their names.

Before the body was taken to the church, friends of the former police lieutenant gathered at the house to view the body. Police reserves formed them into a line that stretched for half a mile. Those who saw the casket noticed that it bore a new plate reading: "Charles Becker, Died July 30, 1915."

A plate removed by the police yesterday bore the allegation that Becker was "murdered by Governor Whitman."

In the crowd that passed in and out of the Becker house were policemen of all ranks. With a few exceptions they were all in civilian clothes. As the casket was being removed from the house, the crowd pushed in and the police had difficulty in keeping the way clear. A wreath alongside the floral cross had the words "To the Martyr With Sincere Sympathy," on it. Another wreath bore a card of Alexander S. Williams, former police inspector who was a close friend of Becker. Less than a dozen carriages followed the hearse to Woodlawn cemetery. As the carriage filled with the floral offerings was about to drive through the gates of the cemetery, uniformed employees stepped up and removed the "Sacrificed to Politics" inscription from the floral cross. Hundreds of curious persons crowded around the grave as the casket was being lowered.

A Liberal Offer By Licking Creamery Company

To the Users of Milk and Cream From Its Retail Wagon.

The Licking Creamery Company begs to announce that until further notice it will make a regular monthly award of two (2) $1.00 sheets of milk tickets upon each of its retail milk wagon routes to private consumers of milk and cream throughout the city.

The awards will be made on the 15th day of each month.

A duplicate receipt stub from every sheet of tickets sold during the preceding month will be placed in a box from which the stubs to receive awards will be drawn by a disinterested party. Each route will be handled separately.

THERE IS BUT ONE CONDITION QUALIFYING THESE AWARDS.

All competitors must have their accounts with the Licking Creamery Company paid in full for the month preceding the one in which any given drawing occurs.

In other words, should a duplicate of one of your ticket receipt stubs be drawn on the 15th of one month it would not receive an award unless your account was paid in full for the month preceding.

This is absolutely the only requirement made, thereby characterizing this proposition as being extremely clean cut and liberal. We hope it will please the public. Watch for the next drawing. Your name may be among the fortunate ones to be announced in the papers following the next drawing.

THE CHARM OF MOTHERHOOD

Enhanced By Perfect Physical Health.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

MISCREANT TOOK CHARITY BOXES; ROBBED CHURCH

Some time Sunday night burglars gained an entrance to St. Francis de Sales church, ransacked the building and robbed the offering boxes and charity boxes placed in the church.

The entrance was gained through a window on the east side of the building, and when the church was opened this morning, presented a deplorable sight. The baptismal room had been entered, the oils upset on the carpets, the baptismal salts scattered about, and the boxes for the poor offerings in the vestibule were broken open and the money taken. In the sacristies the cupboards were all ransacked, and on the altars the offering boxes were taken apart and the candle grease was spread over the carpets. It is not known how much money was secured, and so far as can be learned, nothing else was taken.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
San Francisco, Aug. 2.—San Francisco society is not going to spoil the 600 midshipmen who are here today, on the battleships Missouri, Wisconsin and Ohio, if Rear Admiral William P. "Society must not overdo this thing," said the officer, discussing the large number of entertainments planned for his young charges.

"These lads have to work as well as play. This trip is part of their regular training; they work hard aboard ship and must not be tired out at night. They are learning things of great value on the practical side of naval life. That is why I don't want them ashore late in the evenings."

Granville

[Special to The Advocate]

Granville, O., Aug. 2.—The Newark Chautauqua is attracting much favorable comment from those in this community who have been so fortunate as to attend. Among the Granville people who took in the Ben Gray Players "Comedy of Errors, Saturday evening, were notified, Misses: Inocence and Louise Hamblin, Miss Maud Jones, Mrs. Mary Dundee, Miss Perova Stanunova, Miss Harriet Rogers and Miss Davis. They are mentioned in their praise of the performance.

Despite the heat and rain the churches were all well attended yesterday, and the music in the various choirs kept well up to the mark. In the Baptist church, the pulpit was ably filled by Rev. Clarence W. Kemmer, 99, of Minneapolis, who with his wife is visiting at the home of his mother in West Broadway. The sermon was admirably constructed and splendidly delivered—the text used, being parts of two different verses: "It is expedient for you that I go away," and "Let I am with you always." The music by the choir was an enjoyable feature of the service. Miss Theodore Johnson and the choir singing in most effective style, "Saviour, Like a Shepherd Lead Us." For the offertory, Miss Inocence Hamblin, whose sweet voice has been broadcasting and standing since last heard, sang "Thy Will Be Done," with true feeling.

At the union service in the Methodist church last evening, the large congregation was greatly edified by a sermon on "Judas Iscariot" by Rev. G. A. Beers, State Evangelist. There was special music under the direction of the chorister, Miss Alicet Chrysler.

Mr. J. D. Thompson, who has been in the East visiting her brother, sister and daughter for the past two months, returned home yesterday, much to the satisfaction of her many friends.

DISTRESS

THAT NEEDS INSTANT RELIEF EXISTS IN AND ABOUT MEXICO CITY

American Consul General Recalled for Conference With Secretary Lansing Regarding Situation

Washington, Aug. 2.—Arnold Shanklin, American consul general at Mexico City, arrived here today to confer with Secretary Lansing regarding Mexican affairs. He was recently recalled to Washington following reports of a difficulty he had with the Brazilian minister who is looking after American interests in Mexico.

Mr. Shanklin was expected to throw considerable light on the Mexican political situation as well as the food situation at Mexico City, where it was said that immediate steps would be taken by General Carranza, whose forces are again in possession, to transport by rail food to the starving people. The food situation is serious and requires immediate attention to relieve distress, according to the consul-general.

It was reported through Carranza sources that heavily guarded trains were being prepared to leave Vera Cruz with supplies to supplement food being taken into the Mexican capital by the army of occupation.

The outcome of the efforts to send food into Mexico City was being awaited today by officials of the Washington government with much interest. Much depends, it was said, upon the success of this undertaking because of the determination of the American government to relieve the food famine in case Carranza's forces were unable to do so.

DENOUNCE U. S. FOR SHIPMENT WAR SUPPLIES

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—Hope, expressed by a number of delegates, that the National German-American Alliance, which convened here today, would make no formal declaration of its attitude toward the controversy in which the United States and Germany is now engaged, has diminished. It was said today, as a result of the attack made on the United States government yesterday by the organization's president, Dr. C. J. Hexamer, of Philadelphia.

Delegates in favor of a strong stand by the convention, asserted that Dr. Hexamer's denunciation of the United States for permitting the shipment of war supplies to England, paved the way for resolutions, covering the same ground.

COKE WORKERS AT GARDENING ARE MOST SUCCESSFUL

(Associated Press Telegram)

Cincinnati, Pa., Aug. 2.—Vegetables valued at $10,500 were raised in the gardens at the two plants of the H. C. Frick Coke company in Fayette county, according to the committee of officials who today completed the annual award of prizes to coke workers and their families. Of this amount, $8,150 was by gardeners at the Leisnering plant, where sunflowers were planted to support vining beans, and only two of the 165 backyards in the colony were not cultivated.

Boy Scouts had one of the best gardens, and George Orr raised a fine crop of strawberries on ground that three years ago was the floor of a stone quarry. Another notable feature was found in cabbage patches where the smallest heads weighed six pounds.

SCIENCE

SHOULD BE ADOPTED IN THE
DAILY LIFE OF AMERICAN PEOPLE.

Underlying Laws Rule Everywhere
—Opening of Convention to Advance Science.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

San Francisco, Aug. 2.—In opening the convention here today of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, the president
Dr. W. W. Campbell, director of Lick
Observatory, delivered an address on "Science and Civilization."

Dr. Campbell urged a fuller application of the scientific spirit to all phases of modern life.
"The human race," he said, "needs above everything else the conviction that the principles of science rule everywhere and that the problems of personal and national life are not solved so long as any important forces are ignored. The need is especially great in our country, where isolation from other countries and the existence of immense natural resources have led us to have kept up with international progress in spite of our wasteful and inefficient methods. It were well to recognize that entry upon world affairs, which we cannot long avoid, will reveal costly weaknesses."

"The appeal of science for the adoption of scientific methods in the daily life of the people, in the governments of communities, state and nation, in the settling of international questions, is not an appeal for efficiency at all costs. The man who worships scientific efficiency, or the man who pushes his religion too far, may acquire a harsh and selfish view of life; pity and charity may drop out of his vocabulary."

GOT GROCERIES BY FRAUD IS CHARGE MADE

Charging that William H. Sturman secured a bill of groceries under false pretenses, The Conrad Grocery company caused the arrest Sunday morning of Sturman, who has been sought by the officers for several days.
The complaint charges that Sturman called the grocery by telephone and represented himself to be William H. Burdell, Hyerman, and in Mr. Burdell's name, guaranteed the payment of the bill.

The groceries were delivered, according to the charge, and the investigation which followed revealed the fact that Mr. Burdell had never called the grocery.

The case was set for hearing later.

One of the speakers at the Redpath Chautauqua told how the Chautauqua could be made a success by co-operation and boasting, and while it seems that everyone is boasting, they seem to lack the co-operation of the weather man. The big storm of Saturday afternoon beating on the tent made it almost impossible to hear the speaker, and the grounds were flooded. Owing to the fact that the tent is placed in the playgrounds the restrictions forbid that sawdust or trenches be used to remedy the effects of the deluge. On Sunday afternoon the approach of what seemed to be a heavy storm caused great numbers to leave the tent, and Mr. Harry E. Atwood, who was speaking, hastened the conclusion of his address.

The Sunday afternoon program was opened by Marcus A. Kellerman and company in concert work. Mr. Kellerman, who is a dramatic baritone, gave a delightful recital made up of classical numbers. Possessing a wonderful voice, Mr. Kellerman has sung the leading roles at the Berlin Royal Opera, and has toured with the New York, Minneapolis and St. Paul orchestras and has been featured as soloist with many large orchestras.

The concert was followed by Mr. Harry E. Atwood, former sales manager of the Sheldon school and field secretary of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States. Mr. Atwood spoke on "Co-operation and Progress," which dealt with some of the big problems confronting the people of today, namely, community development, marketing and distribution, and the so-called big business.

Mr. Atwood said the best definition of co-operation he had ever heard was a little poem which he recited which had for its kenynote, "I'll help you if you'll help me." This the speaker said if applied to employer and employee, would avert all the great strikes, if applied to the European war, there would have been no conflict.

Community building requires the co-operation of the citizens, and presents the problems of marketing and distribution. Mr. Atwood said he had no panacea to offer for these afflictions but by example and story showed the great waste incurred yearly in the great states. The problem of transportation is one of the greatest which hampers the production of food, and in Michigan it costs 300 percent to distribute the products. The producer gets only 25 percent of the price paid by the consumer.

People in New York purchase apples grown in the state of Washington, and Washington residents buy the apples grown in New York. Coal of the same quality is sent hundreds of miles in different directions, passing at a point on the road. Proper systematization of transportation would prevent this worthless expenditure.

Mr. Atwood then touched on "Big Business," and berated the political demagogue and calumny bowler who attributed all ills to big business and its promoters. "Big business is here not as a result of crookedness, not as a result of a gigantic conspiracy, but because God revealed to the mind of man the wonders of steam and electricity." He paid a high tribute to Studebaker, Ford and others who have built up a big business out of meager beginnings. He scored the cheap politician who attacks big business for selfish purposes to gain election.

Mr. Atwood also commented on the many freak laws passed in the last five years, stating that in the five years intervening between 1909 and 1913 over 62,000 statutes were enacted, and in the same period over 65,000 decisions were rendered by the courts of last resort. "God to rule the universe only laid down the ten laws, the ten commandments," commented the speaker. "If the governor of Ohio wished really to do good for his state, he would send but one message to the legislature and that is to take a fanning mill and blow out 90 percent of the laws enacted and then take a pruning knife and prune down the remaining ten percent."

Marcus Kellerman and company again appeared on the Sunday evening program and opened his concert with Kipling's poem "On the Way to Mandalay," set to music by Olej Speaks. He sang several numbers in German and by request gave the Banjo Song, from the Bandana Ballad by Sidney Homer. His accompanist, Sigmund Herzog, gave a delightful piano number, Staccato Klude, by Rabenstein, and was forced to respond to an encore. One of the most heartily applauded numbers by Mr. Kellerman was the Toreador Song from Carmen, which was given by request.

Dr. C. C. Mitchell, a bomb shell speaker, with rapid fire gun energy sent epigrams to his audiences in his most interesting address, "Job, or the World's Ash Heap." The Biblical character was made the center of a mythical drama by the speaker, the leading characters of which Job was the hero and Satan the villain. Some of Dr. Mitchell's epigrams were:

In Job's day they did not create characters, as we do, corporations out of wind and moonshine. Job was all right on both sides of him, outside and in.

If we had less creed and more character the angels wouldn't get the heart ache so often.

A lot of people are coming out at the short end of the horn. Only the millionaire and confectionist can make ends meet, but more pie in the dinner pail or millionaires trading salaries with you and me won't kill sin.

The trouble with the world today is not in the social system but in the human system.

The speaker said in the tragedy of Job and Satan, that Satan insinuates to God that it is easy for Job to be a good man, for he is God's pet, surrounded by luxury and happiness and without temptation. It took the ash heap to prove to Satan that Job was sincere. Job faced the test of the ash heap and he fell to the ground and prayed.

Satan then said that he had not measured the man right, that financial pain had not phased him, but that God would permit him to go after him instead of the things that belonged to him. His integrity of soul would vanish. Job is chased to hell's last ditch and something within him begins to prattle the alphabet of a new existence, see him grasp the secret of the elements and send it echoing down the corridors of time. "I know that my Redeemer liveth."

Saturday's Program.

Threatening storms did not prevent a fair sized audience assembling on Saturday night, while the performance was delayed until after 8:30 o'clock. It proved an adequate compensation for the long wait, for the presentation of Shakespeare's "Comedy of Errors" by the Ben Greet Players was a delightful entertainment.

The Ben Greet Players have a world wide reputation, and the present company coached by Mr. Greet at his New York studio, presented most admirably the short Shakespearean comedy. The play was continuous and was nicely costumed. It dealt with two twins who were separated from each other and from their parents. The twins also have each an attendant who were twin brothers. Their meeting after many years and the incidents surrounding it afforded the great writer the opportunity for many splendid comedy lines. The company was headed by Percival Vivian, as Dromio of Ephesus, one of the twins who were servants, and his admirable work was only seconded by Mr. Charles Rogers who played the role of the other twin.

Harry Joener and Edmund Dalby were most capable in their presentation of the characters of the brothers, Antipholus. The women of the company were very clever, especially Miss Elizabeth Patterson as Adriana.

The Ben Greet Players have played for several seasons on the Chautauqua programs and with little effort at stage effect, the players are chosen for their capability to present the characters in a classical play.

The afternoon program on Saturday at the Chautauqua was given over to a musical entertainment and a lecture by Dr. Herbert L. Willett. The musical program proved a delightful feature, being given by the Kentucky Entertainers, Miss Olive Robertson, pianiste, Miss Anna Chastain Hayne, soprano, and A. F. Spieckel, cellist. They were enthusiastically applauded in all their numbers.

Dr. Willett, who is of Chicago University, and author of many educational and religious works, gave his lecture, "New Continents." He proved interesting, and while the real worth of his address was lost, owing to the heavy storm, he brought home many truths to his audience. Dr. Willett said, in part:

"The discovery and colonization of America released a new set of human interests, the quest for scientific mastery of nature, the conquest of matter by mind, the development of inventive genius, and the growth of educational science. It would seem that the American ideal is material success. More slowly have come to expression the elements of ethical and religious concern."

"Perhaps these higher factors in the life of the race are yet to find their due expression in that dim and uncharted Asia from which most of the spiritual teachers have come, and which has shown itself as yet unaroused by the occidental passions of commerce and convenience, in which we are too content to find the secrets of civilization and progress."

"These advancing continents of colonization and human interest are further interesting as illustrative of the expanding life of the individual. Man is like the planet on which he resides, and the maps he makes of its surface are like the convolutions of his own brain. And he is as old as the oldest of the continents. The oldest thing in the world is a new born child."

"That child is at the dawn of history. He has the entire process to repeat. A bundle of bones, muscles and appetites, he is at best an animal with promise of human experience. He links hands across the centuries with the first races of the earth. It is the care of this organism that is one of the new notes in education."

as successful features of the Chautauqua is the Junior Redpath Chautauqua, which is the children's part. This is an educational as well as an entertainment feature, and both in the afternoon and morning there are hours devoted to stories and play hours.

The work here is under the direction of Miss Lulu Hulbert, a graduate of the Columbia School of Education of Chicago, and each day she gathers under her care a large number of the Newark boys and girls. The children's hours have been changed and will now be from 8:30 to 10 a. m. in the tent and in the afternoon from 3 to 4 o'clock on the green, back of the tent. When inclement weather prevails the meetings will be held in the Fifth street Baptist church. Today folk dances and tales occupied the time, Miss Hulbert showing the Russian folk dances. The program will include Indian, Russian, Scandinavian, German, Japanese and English folk dances and folk tales.

The morning hour is for the children who are holders of the season tickets, but the afternoon hour is open to all the boys and girls of Newark.

HEAVY RAIN FELL AT LAKE AND VICINITY

A heavy rain which almost had the appearance of a cloudburst fell at Buckeye Lake Park and vicinity Sunday. Warning was sent from Columbus that a storm was headed toward the lake and Manager Will D. Harris sent out a number of employees with megaphones to call in the launches scattered over the lake, hundreds of which were out. Nearly all started for the shore and the few laggards that remained out received a good drenching for the rain came down in a short time in torrents, in fact it was almost impossible for a time to see but a few feet ahead.

Automobile parties, picnickers and others around the lake who were away from shelter, received a thorough wetting. The rain started about 2:45 and lasted nearly an hour. Fields, barnyards, in fact every place was flooded over shoe top deep. Residents from Newark arriving at the lake in the evening were surprised to hear that there had been a rainstorm, stating that only a few drops fell in the city. However, Newark was not overlooked and early this morning there was quite a shower. It is predicted that there will be quite a rainfall this month and it is already getting a good start, having rained the first two days.
